Dear Lili,

On behalf of the over 200 member organizations of the National Council of Women's Organizations (NCWO), representing some 10 million women around the United States, I am writing to express my enthusiasm about WomenAID Live!

NCWO is a coalition of the largest and most influential women's organizations in the United States. Our members collaborate through substantive policy work and grass roots activism to advocate for women's equality. We share the aims of WomenAID Live! to empower women so that each of us can achieve her full potential. Moreover, the message of this global event – that women's equality is key to eliminating poverty and violence around the world – has never been more timely.

Thank you for your tireless work on this project. NCWO is proud to support it, and I have no doubt that it will inspire millions of people around the world.

Sincerely,

Susan Scanlan, Chair
